Steps for usage

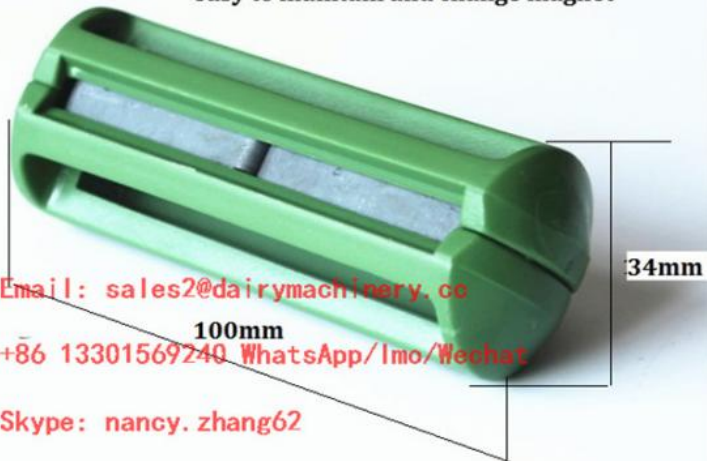

Principle of use

After the magnetic cage is placed in the stomach, along with the peristalsis of the rumen, the magnetic cage will also move in the rumen and adsorb the iron scraps, so that it will slowly dissolve, protect the rumen from damage, and restore the appetite of the cow for the healthy growth of the cow. If you need to verify the effect, bovine stomach remover can remove the magnetic cage.

Shell: be made of Non-toxic plastic easy to maintain and change magnet

slot design
the scrap iron is easily absorbed into the slot.
safe to use, will not hurt the cow stomach
