Cattle Bloodless Castrator, Bull burdizzo castrator, Burdizzo Forceps for castrating a bull, veterinary instruments

Model: HL-Q2

Name: Bloodless Castrating(Burdizzo)

Material: stainless steel

Animal: cow / cattle / bull

Range: veterinary instruments

Features: operation is simple, easy to use, no blood castration

Castration is the simple process of removing a bull's ability to reproduce. A castrated bull is commonly referred to as a steer.

Why need choose Bloodless Castrating(Burdizzo)?

Using bloodless castration forceps for male livestock castration surgery has the following advantages compared to traditional surgical castration methods:

Easy to operate, surgeons only need short training to master the usage skills, while traditional surgical castration requires specially trained veterinarians to perform.

It has good safety because it eliminates the need to cut the scrotum during surgery, thereby reducing the risk of wound infection and avoiding the danger of tetanus infection causing livestock death after surgery.

Post-operative care is simple; animals castrated with bloodless castration forceps do not require special post-surgical care to avoid complications.

Bloodless castration, the most humane way to do this. Much better than banding or just cutting the poor fellas.
